May 2018

The cold is gone and warm weather has finally arrived. I hope everyone is as happy as I am to see the warm weather.

I want to take a minute and thank everyone who attended our Spring meeting. At this meeting, we discussed the club purchasing some bar stools for the tall tables. We wanted to ensure that on Friday nights we would have enough stools to have two stools for each of the tall tables. Due to the generous donations by many members, we will be purchasing 20 bar stools. I thank each of you for being so generous and willing to help. As I have stated before, our members are the best. These stools will belong to the FSC and Michael has said he will help to ensure they remain in the dance room. At a later date, we will look into maybe purchasing a few new tall tables. There are several that are real wobbly and need to be replaced.

For those not at the meeting, I made the announcement that I was approached several months ago regarding running for secretary of the ACSC. I, after careful consideration, accepted the challenge. Voting will take place in July at the Summer ACSC meeting. I am running unopposed. I am honored to be asked to take on this position and promise to represent the FSC well.

Sandy McCants and Ruby Hayes were nominated to serve on the Nominating Committee. The officers will be selecting three more members to also serve on the committee. Once the committee is selected, members will be notified. Anyone interested in serving as an officer for 2019 will then need to notify the Nominating Committee of their interest to serve. We will also be electing a new Director this year. This is the spot currently held by Margie Morris, whose term ends December 31st.

As soon as tickets are printed and Hilda is ready, we will start selling Reverse Raffle tickets. The drawing will be held on July 27th. Cool Me Out will be held August 10th, so mark your calendars for both dates.

Please continue to keep Gerry Hayes in your prayers as she recovers from her injury. If you know of any members who are in need of our prayers, please let your officers know.

Remember to always thank Michael, David and Lindsey and let them know how much we appreciate them.

God Bless each of you. I love you all and I will see you on the dance floor.
