2020

Hello FSC members,

Until it's safe to meet again, Friday night DJ's and dances have been cancelled. The Circle is closed until further notice. Our Spring Meeting is postponed and will be rescheduled as well as our Golf Tournament that was scheduled for May 21. The Golf Tournament will probably be rescheduled for some time in November.

We haven't drawn the winner of the Pot-of-Gold Basket yet. We have to make sure all of the tickets are combined so that everyone who bought one gets a chance to win. We will probably draw as soon as we get to meet again. Our Cool-Me-Out will hopefully be scheduled some time in August

This has been a heartbreaking time in all our lives. I'm sure we are all praying for a vaccine and a proper treatment for the Covid-19 virus going forward. I have had the nasal covid-19 test recently because I was scheduled for surgery in Charleston. OMG it hurt. It was negative thank goodness!

We pray that everyone stays safe and we will see you all again soon. Thank you for your continued support and kind words.

Hilda Bowen, 2020 President.

Thoughts and Prayers:

Please add me, Hilda, to your prayer list.

I have had two surgeries on my back recently for a Sarcoma. I may or may not have to have radiation Treatments. Keep your fingers crossed for me.

Please continue to keep all our members in your Prayers.

Have a 2020 graduate in your family? Here are some clever ways to celebrate your Graduate in a Quarantine!

#1 Decorate Your Front Door

Make a poster showcasing highlights of your grad's college or high school days, display their 2020 t-shirt, football jersey, band or cheer uniform, etc. and add other memorabilia that is meaningful to your grad.

#2 Throw a Family Only Grad Bash

Our grads deserve a party, even if it is on a much smaller (family only) scale. Choose a theme, put up a few graduation decorations, have your grad pick their favorite foods to serve, make (or buy) an awesome cake, cupcakes or a few fab desserts and play a few graduation games to make it fun!

#3 Host a Virtual Grad Party

"Social-distancing" doesn't mean you can't be social and honor your grad at the same time. Thanks to cool technology, you can celebrate your graduate in a quarantine by throwing your grad a virtual graduation party and invite as many people as you wish! Sites such as Skype, FaceTime, and Google Hangouts , offer the tech tools so family, friends and distant relatives can all join in on the celebration.

#4 Surprise Them with a Custom T-Shirt Quilt

Just because our kids won't be having a formal graduation ceremony and we won't be throwing them the big grad bash we planned doesn't mean they can't wrap themselves in all their amazing memories. This custom t-shirt quilt, filled with all their favorite t-shirts (think t-shirts from their sorority, fraternity, vacations, sports events, competitions, etc.) will forever be a reminder of their amazing high school or college days.
